Suspect Tactics and Perimeter Containment

Presented by the Alameda County Sheriff's K9 Association

The Alameda County Sheriff's K9 Unit is proud to present, "Suspect Tactics and Perimeter Containment", an 8-hour classroom presentation, September 29th, 2009, in Dublin.

This course is eligible for incentive pay. It is designed for patrol officers, field supervisors, K-9 handlers, SWAT team members, air crews and tactics trainers. It will be presented at Alameda County Sheriff's Office of Emergency Services located at 4985 Broder Blvd in Dublin, from 0800 -1700 hours. Please arrive early for registration. Doors open at 0730. Agency ID will be required.

Course topics include:

• Suspect Tactics: An in-depth look at trends and tactics used by criminals attempting to evade capture on foot, including suspect hiding locations and officer search tactics.

• Perimeter Containment: A proven method for containing and capturing suspects on the run. Included is discussion of communication during foot pursuits, responsibilities of responding units, perimeter management, supervisors' responsibilities, use of specialized units, decision making, and debriefing. This section is updated frequently to include the latest tactics being used.

• Officer Down Debriefs: The class will debrief four "shots-fired, officer down" scenarios as they relate to perimeter containment. These real-life situations vividly demonstrate the importance of containing an area for a suspect who just assaulted or murdered a law enforcement officer.

Course instructor, Officer Jack H. Shonely of the Los Angeles Police Department, has over 25 years of law enforcement experience and is a nationally recognized expert in suspect tactics and perimeter containment.

There is a $40 non-reimbursable registration fee. Please make checks payable to the Alameda County Sheriff's K-9 Association. www.acsodsa.org
